Experience the innovative and simple design of the Nedis Wire Hanging Style TV Wall Mount.

The one-person installation and the innovative low-profile design places your TV a mere 14,5 mm away from the wall, enhancing the allure of any flat screen setup.

The lightweight, durable mounting is suitable for brick and stud walls and because you'll only need to make a maximum of two screw fixings, the integrity of your décor is assured.

Easy set-up and perfect positioning

The installation is quick and you can easily do it on your own. It will be supplied complete with all mounting materials and a leveler.

The wall flip-out leg allows you to lift the screen away from the wall while you connect up the cables.
