This professional Nedis portable wireless Wi-Fi presentation system supports wireless transmission of HDMI™ output up to 4K. It allows you to switch between multiple casting devices quickly, wirelessly and effortlessly. This makes it an ideal solution for so called Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) meetings.

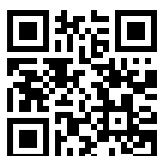

It supports multiple platforms, including iOS™, Android™, MacOS® and Windows® operating systems allowing productive and flexible presentations and collaboration from individual devices. A wireless presentation to a shared display like a TV, beamer or digi-board from participants' seats will also remove the need for complex configuring and cabling.
