This Nedis tower fan has a compact design and requires only a little floor space so that you can enjoy a refreshing breeze even in smaller rooms. Equipped with an oscillation function for cooling down the whole room. Set the timer to automatically turn itself off after a preset period of time, choose between a half-hour up to 7.5 hours.

The fan has two breeze modes: nature and sleep mode. Simulate a natural breeze or get it into a gentle breeze mode during the night.

Manage this and other settings such as speed and oscillation with the included remote control.
