With this Nedis 3-in-1 alarm clock, you and your smartphone will wake up fully recharged every morning, thanks to its three functions: Qi wireless charging, a LED clock and the dual alarm function.

Simply place the alarm clock beside your bed, connect to a power adapter, put your phone on the charging area and your phone will wake you up on time full of energy. The wireless charging function is specifically made for safe and fast charging of your device, depending on the maximum output power that it can handle. It is compatible with the 15W fast charging standard.
